

Meet the FAJ Team: Prudence Mnguni

By Prudence Mnguni

Release Date: 21 July 2022

My name is Prudence Mnguni, I am 50 years old. I was born in Daveyton and have no siblings. I have 2 children. I did my matric at Mabuya Secondary School in Daveyton and proceeded to do a Computer Literacy in one of the Community Projects. In 2014, I registered with UNISA and did a course in Archives and Records Management but my aim was to do a Social Worker Course because I love working with communities and helping people. Due to my circumstances, I dropped out of UNISA. I am an active member of the community. I was a team leader in the HIV/AIDS project, and a Community Liaison Officer (CLO) in a project of building 176 RDP houses in my community. I have also worked as a coordinator at Lungile Mtshali's project and as a field worker for Ekurhuleni Municipality. I am doing food gardens in my backyard and working in recycling.
