Message from ILRIG to Khanya College

Release date 26 July

Warm, revolutionary greetings to all participants at the 2023 Khanya Winter School from the International Labour, Research & Information Group (ILRIG). As a close partner of Khanya and an ally that works with many of the organisations represented at the School, we want to wish you all a productive week of discussion, analysis, sharing, and building care and solidarity.

Amid the multiple political, social, and economic crises facing the broader working class and radical/progressive activists and organisations, we need events like the Winter School more than ever. Collective education, debate, solidarity, and struggle can provide us with the ways and means to confront the crises and forge new and creative possibilities for the positive, radical change our country and world so desperately need.

Onward Ever! Backwards Never!
